

The Community Farm Personal Statements 2025

Tom Richardson (Standing for election)

Tom has been at The Farm since 2021, managing the farm's communications and as a member of the senior leadership team. Since October 2024 he has been training to work alongside Kim as Managing Director, joining her in the role in April 2025. Prior to working at The Farm, Tom was Head of Growth & Marketing at the Sustainable Restaurant Association. He also brings a wide range of other relevant experience from working at Bristol Food Network; from leading projects at sustainability consultancy, Futerra; and from five years working part-time as a market-gardener.